

Proverbs 10:2 (NASB)

Ill-gotten gains do not profit,
But righteousness delivers from death.
Ill-gotten gains do not profit,
But righteousness delivers from death.

It's not the things you think you own - that determine what you do
Your actions are more likely a result - of what owns you
Righteousness is good - Ill-gotten gain has no value
Proverbs chapter 10, verse 2

But righteousness delivers from death.
Ill-gotten gains do not profit,
But righteousness delivers from death.
