Psalm 2:8 (NKJV)

```
C                     F
Ask of me and I will give you
     G                        C
the nations for your inheritance
                                F
and the ends of the earth for your possession
       G              C
Ask of me and I will give you

F
Ask of God, do not hesitate.
C                     G
Look at Psalm Chapter 2, Verse 8
         C                   F
Your perception of God, you cannot mask
             C          G        C
For it is revealed, by what you ask

C                     F
Ask of me and I will give you
     G                        C
the nations for your inheritance
                                F
and the ends of the earth for your possession
       G              C
Ask of me and I will give you

C                     F
Ask of me and I will give you
     G                        C
the nations for your inheritance
                                F
and the ends of the earth for your possession
       G              C          F    C G C
Ask of me and I will give you
```